THE BEGINNING OF EVERYTHING

Everyone recognizes the truth of good proverbs, and so they endure from generation to generation. The Russians have a surprisingly bold one that fits this Sunday's Gospel: "Bread is the beginning of everything."

Judging from the first reading, Elijah might have felt that it was too late for bread—too late for life itself. This great prophet was at the end of his rope and endurance. Then, not one, but two angels visit him. One offers food and drink. The other gives startling directions. For Elijah, this food from the angels is bread for his journey. On the strength of the heaven-sent gift of food, he walks to the mountain of God.

In today's Gospel, Jesus offers himself, not just as bread for the journey, but as bread for life itself. He gives his flesh as life for the world. "I am the bread of life" (John 6:48). He is the beginning of everything.

NEWS AND EVENTS

Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

August 15 is the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Because it falls on a Saturday it is not a Holy Day of Obligation this year. However, on Friday evening, August 14, at 6:00 pm, Solemn Vespers of the Blessed Virgin Divine Office will be available for those attending.

CCD Program

Volunteers are needed for our CCD program starting in the Fall. If you are interested, please contact Louise Browne at 944-5466.

CCD Registration

CCD Registration will be held again this Sunday, August 9th, after Sunday Masses only, in the Family Life Center. The cost is $40.00 per child. (CCD classes will begin on September 13th).

Load the Tote

The Altar Society is sponsoring a LOAD THE TOTE for our Parish CCD classes. We are collecting school supplies for our children in the CCD program. This weekend, August 8th and 9th, the ladies will be outside of church after all Masses asking for your help. When you buy school supplies for your children, it would be wonderful if you could pick up an extra item for the CCD children. Needed items are Red and Blue folders, construction paper, glue sticks, stick ink pens.

Of course, cash donations will also be accepted. It would be used for any additional items needed and any help the Parish needs with the religious education program.

People have been asking if there will be a Christmas Lights Display this Christmas. As of this weekend the answer is NO because very few have volunteered to help put up the lights! Joan Durden has volunteered to coordinate the decorating but it takes a LOT of help to set up and take down. Unless we get sufficient definite, committed responses within the next two weeks, there will be NO Lights display again this year because there is no one to do it. If you want to volunteer (and plan to show up), call the office 456 5966 or Joan Durden 602 8419.

Congratulations to our Pecan Cook-off winners!

First Place: Ed Roubal with his Pecan Log
Second Place: Kathy Bullard with her Chocolate Pecan Treats
Third Place: Fr. George with his Butter Pecan Tarts.

And thank you to everyone who entered the contest.

Bible Study Classes

At the heart of the Bible are the Psalms, prayers from God that help us learn to pray. The Holy Spirit inspired them. Israel sang them. Christ himself prayed them, as did our Blessed Mother. These sacred hymns become our heartfelt response to God's loving and wondrous deeds for us. Their words captivate the imagination and draw us into a deeply personal encounter with God.

Join Jeff Cavins, Sarah Christmyer, and Dr. Tim Gray as they show you how to establish a deeply personal dialogue with God through the Psalms.

Join us for Psalms: The School of Prayer at St. Anne beginning the week of September 14 and continuing through December 13. We will have signups after all masses the weekend of August 15/16 and August 22/23 for more information and to register for the study, the cost of this study will be $25.00. For additional information please see our website <http://saintannebellview.org> or contact Scott Miller at 850-748-4393 or via email: s\_miller\_0725@hotmail.com

Next weekend the Altar Society will take up the monthly Burse Club collection outside all Masses. Please be generous.

Christmas Decorating Committee

We will have our first meeting in early August. Come join us and help plan Christmas for this year. We need men and women who can help work with the decorator during the week and weekend. Call Joan Durden at 206-6192 to sign-up for the planning committee.

SAFE ENVIRONMENT INFORMATION

Educational Material on the Danger of Abuse

The overwhelming majority of our clergy and lay leaders are hardworking individuals who are dedicated to serving the people of God in our parishes and schools. All of us together are responsible for making sure that all of our ministries are as safe as possible for our children and vulnerable adults. Each of us has a responsibility to educate ourselves about the real danger of abuse. Courses are available online at www.shieldthevulnerable.org, and they are free. For help on these courses and other safety matters, please contact the Diocese Office of Safe Environment at 435-3570.

Victims of Abuse

The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee is committed to healing the hurting hearts of sexual abuse victims and has established Victims Assistance Coordinators who are experienced and trained counselors and are available to help persons who have been sexually abused. The Coordinator for the Pensacola/Fort Walton Beach area is Louis M. Makarowski, Ph.D., P.A; 477-7181.

Ask Fr. George...

Q. Fr What happens when the Body of Christ is dropped on the floor?

A. It is true that accidents do happen, and sadly, sometimes the Eucharist is dropped. The question is more; what do you do if the Body of Christ is dropped? The responsibility to retrieve the Host is on the Priest or the Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion. There are specific things that need to be done so a lay person should not try to pick up the Host and consume it. Here is what I do: I carefully go down on one knee so that I do not spill any other Hosts from the ciboria, and pick it up; I search very carefully to see if any fragments or crumbs from the host have fallen and if I find any I pick them up also. I will keep the host securely in my hand or if it is a clean fall, that is, the Eucharist hadn't touched the mouth of the recipient, I usually consume it immediately. If it is soiled, then I will keep it protected in a purificator (the linen cloth used to wipe out the chalice) until after Mass when I will either bury it in the ground or let it dissolve in water and poured into the sacrarium (a sink that drains directly into the ground).

If the Precious Blood is spilled, that is another story! The Extraordinary Ministers are taught to immediately place the purificator over the spillage and to press down on it to immediately absorb the Precious Blood. They then ask a server or a sacristan to get them another purificator and in the mean time, they are to position themselves over the spillage to ensure that no one steps on it. At the first possible moment, I will try to absorb more of the spilled Blood of Christ with clean purificators. Immediately following Mass, I will wash the area of the spillage with clean water, again trying to absorb as much of the diluted Blood with purificators and towels. Once I am satisfied I have recovered as much as I can, the floor is left to dry. As you can imagine, a carpeted floor in this instance is a much greater challenge. The clothes used to absorb the spillage are then washed in the appropriate fashion.

I hope it goes without saying, that ultimate care must be taken with the Body of Christ. One way of helping to prevent dropping the Host, although it doesn't totally prevent it, is to receive Communion directly on the tongue. The Body of Christ is most often dropped going from the priests hand to a communicant's hand. Communion on the tongue really helps reduce instances of droppage because of the sticking effect when the host touches a moist surface. As for the Precious Blood, our actions of passing the chalice, drinking from it, and returning it to the minister MUST be intentional, slow and reverent. Jerking the chalice will most likely cause spillage; trying to grab it quickly will likely cause spillage; trying to take a quick drink from the chalice may cause spillage; taking the chalice casually with one hand may cause spillage; trying to receive from the chalice with an injured hand or if someone is prone to trembling may cause spillage. Care, consideration, and reverence will all help prevent the very unfortunate dropping or spillage of the Eucharist and providing protection to the most Sacred Body and Blood of our Blessed Lord.

August Second Collection

This month's second collection will be for the Church in Latin America, and will be taken up the weekend of August 22/23.

KoC Wednesday Night Dinner

The next Knights of Columbus Wednesday night dinner is scheduled for August 19th at 5:00 pm. They will be serving Red beans and rice with sausage, salad and cornbread.
