OUR PRODIGAL GOD

We keep having to relearn how prodigal God is. It is as if God cannot quite manage to say no. We think it is surely fine when God is prodigal with us—rich in mercy and forgiveness, generous in grace. But what about the other—the enemy, the sinner, the heretic, the outsider? Well, we expect God to be as stingy with that person as we are.

Moses and Joshua wanted such a cozy world, too. They wondered how the spirit of God could be given to the two who did not show up at the meeting tent—today's church. And the apostles in the Gospel complained because there were some miracle workers who were clearly not followers of Jesus. God's great free-wheeling generosity confounded them all. Let this be, says Jesus. Just see to it that you who lead continue to be worthy of your calling.

GIC Projects for October 3, 2014 Clean-up Day

Families- Young & Experienced are appreciated. This is our Parish Family property, please volunteer and show your children what it is to be a Parishioner.

Pre-Workday Donations: Donate pine straw raked to the front of your property to be used as mulch around the Church and the FLC. Jeff Hayward (293-8528 cell) and Gregg Graves (426-7290 cell) will pick up during the month of September. Register to supply water, hot dogs, ham burgers and chips for delivery starting on Wednesday the 1st.

Suggested Equipment: Neil Richards has a Chipper but we need a Stump Grinder. Matt Castellani & Patrick Cayton have Tractors but another would not hurt to remove small stumps around the property. Bring the equipment, power and manual, you have for brush clearing work. Rakes, shovels and gloves

Goals: Please respond outside of Church after Masses so we know approximately how many workers we can expect.

Cleanout the U-Building and store usable materials in the Red & White Barn so that all of the Ministries may start storing their items and allow the removal of sheds from the Grounds.

Sign-up table will be out after each Mass. Come participate for your Parish and for the Glory of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

GIC Leader
