

Saint Anne Catholic Church

September 24, 2017 - 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Michael, Gabriel and Raphael
Angels—messengers from God

God our Father, in a wonderful way you guide the work of angels and men. May those who serve you constantly in heaven keep our lives safe from all harm on earth. Amen.

*St Michael, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
St Gabriel, intercede for us at the throne of divine mercy: As thou didst announce to Mary the mystery of the Incarnation, so through thy prayers may we receive strength of faith and courage of spirit, and thus find favor with God and redemption through Christ Our Lord.*

St Raphael, help us in all our needs and trials of this life, We humbly seek thine aid and intercession, that our souls may be healed, our bodies protected from all ills, and that through divine grace we may be made fit to dwell in the eternal Glory of God in heaven. Amen.

CALL UPON THE LORD

The very first line of today's first reading summons us to seek the Lord and to call upon God. This sentiment is echoed in the refrain for today's responsorial psalm: "The Lord is near to all who call upon him" (Psalm 145:18a). Saint Paul is the embodiment of someone who constantly sought the Lord. In the excerpt we read today from his letter to the Philippians, we find Saint Paul toward the end of his life, a life he describes as completely consonant with Christ. He writes, "For to me life is Christ" (Philippians 1:21). To find out what it means to live life completely in accord with Christ we need look no further than today's Gospel. There we find that God's love and mercy are immeasurable for all those who seek and call upon the Lord.

100 years ago in Fatima.....

On September 13, 1917, with thousands jamming the highway, Our Lady asked the children to pray the rosary daily to end the war, that in October, Our Lord, Our Lady of the Sorrow of Mount Carmel and Saint Joseph with the Child Jesus would appear to bless the world. A Reverend Doctor from Lisboa Cathedral talked to the children, concluding they were telling the truth, but was worried the crowds would be angry if no miracle happened.

Join us for the St. Anne's Miracle of the Sun Celebration on October 13th, 2017, to commemorate the 100th Anniversary of the Fatima Apparitions

We will begin with the Rosary at 5pm

At 5:45 we will have pizza and watch the movie about the Miracle of the Sun
