THIRSTING FOR LIFE-GIVING WATERS

Especially during the Lenten, Holy Week, and Easter seasons, the prayer texts of the Eastern Church revel in paradoxical images of Christ: the eternal life who is put to death, the host of the supper who is also its meal, the thirsty crucified one with living water streaming from his side. These images flow from the evangelists' portrayals of Jesus and from his very ministry, during which he often upset or reversed people's expectations about him or the ways of God. This "reversal" is at play in today's Gospel, as Jesus speaks to an enemy foreigner who is also a woman beneath his status. In addition he, the thirsting one, shows the woman to be the one truly thirsting. He—whose parched lips will say "I thirst" before he dies—is the source of life and life-giving water. Lent calls upon us to dwell on how each of us is thirsting for Christ, and it leads us, ultimately, back to the life-giving waters of our baptism into his Body.

The Angel of Peace appeared to three children, Lucia, Jacinta and Francisco at the Cabelo hill in Fatima, Portugal in July 1916. He instructed them to pray a great deal. The second time the angel appeared to them, he taught them the Pardon Prayer.

My God,

I believe, I adore, I hope and I love Thee!

Good Friday are days of fast. On days of fast, one full meal and two lesser meals are permitted. Eating between meals is not permitted. Catholics aged 18-59 are bound by this law.

All of the faithful are obliged to do penance, but not all may be able to observe the above regulations of fast and abstinence because of ill health or other reasons.
