CHILDREN OF THE LIGHT

The future king, David, in today's first reading, is an example of a type of character present throughout the Hebrew scriptures. He is the child born out of place (not the eldest or most favored) who ends up receiving the promise of the covenant. The spirit of God's anointing rushes upon him. In this way, he is similar to the man born blind from today's Gospel. David's family and the blind man's community did not expect the miraculous grace of God's love to work through them. Perhaps they, too, were "blinded" by the expectations and assumptions of those around them. Yet, after being touched by God, they both came to "see" the presence of God's will for them. Both became messengers of God's will. That same Spirit of God's anointing rushed upon us at our baptism; we were given a candle as a sign of our membership in the Body of Christ, the Light from Light. Our vocation, then, is to fulfill that enlightenment, that anointing, as Ephesians tells us, by living as "children of the light."

It is intended for those who have gotten away from the Sacrament or the Church and who may be hesitant to approach the Sacrament. Please let this evening be a special time for them.

It will also support the African American and Native American communities who are in need of support and formation opportunities, and encouragement in the Christian life. Envelopes are available at the entrance to the church.

100 years ago in Fatima.....

The Angel of Peace appeared to three children, Lucia, Jacinta and Francisco at the Cabelo hill in Fatima, Portugal in July 1916. He instructed them to pray a great deal. The second time the angel appeared to them, he taught them the Pardon Prayer.

My God,
I believe,
I adore,
I hope and I love You!

I beg pardon for those who do not believe,
do not adore,
do not hope
and do not love You!

(Angel of Peace 1916)

The Knights of Columbus will be selling Krispy Kreme doughnuts THIS WEEKEND, after Mass. Doughnuts will be sold outside the church after the 7:00 am Mass, and outside the Family Life Center after the 8:30 and 11:00 am Masses.
