THE CALL OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

The Twenty-third Psalm, today's responsorial psalm, is arguably the best known of all the psalms. The line that reads "Even though I walk in the dark valley / I fear no evil; for you are at my side / with your rod and your staff / that give me courage" (Psalm 23:4) connects this week's scriptures to the wonderful story of the road to Emmaus, which we heard last week. The Lord Jesus, our Good Shepherd, is constantly at our side. He calls us each by name, beckoning us into a deeper relationship with him. That call, issued to each of us at the moment of our baptism, carries with it the promise of the Good Shepherd: "I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly" (John 10:10).

100 years ago in Fatima.....

On May 13, 1917 at the Cova da Iria pasture in Fatima, Portugal, Lucia, Jacinta, and Francisco saw a brilliant light, then a beautiful Lady. She asked if they wished to endure suffering in reparation for sins, and they said yes (their families and neighbors would mock them.) She told them to pray the rosary every day for peace (to end World War I), and to make sacrifices for sinners (they would give their lunches to beggar children). Overwhelmed by her light, they prayed the Eucharistic Prayer:

“Most Holy Trinity, I adore Thee! My God, my God, I love Thee in the Most Blessed Sacrament.”

Our Lady of Fatima, Pray for Us
