TRADITION

Tradition is long human memory set, not in stone, but in human interaction. Without this active memory, the bonds of relationship and affection fray and fall apart. Communities dissolve as surely as neglected buildings do. After participating in events, celebrations, and even small rituals, we remark about how good it is to gather and remember.

Today's readings remind us of foundations laid deeper than the human will to relate. Today we hear about God's will to relate to us—to be our God as we are called to be God's own beloved people.

Today in three readings and three ways we remember the covenant bonds that create us as a people and the obligation and responsibility that express the innermost attitude of soul. You are mine. I am yours. These are God's words that created a people as surely as "Let there be light" created the sun and moon and all the stars.

From the Altar Society

Oops, we made a big mistake. Back in June at the Father's Day breakfast, one of our prize winners did not get a prize. The gift card fell out of the paper sleeve and all this father got was an empty sleeve. I'm sure he is being polite by not letting us know. But please, we have your prize. If you would please contact Jean at wojo50@att.net, we would be more than happy to fix our mistake.
