NEWS AND EVENTS

What is Friend's of the Poor Walk?

The Friend's of the Poor Walk/Run is an annual event of the National St. Vincent de Paul's office and began in 2008 to raise funds to support local special work projects. The Walk/Run has taken place at 220 different locations in the United States. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul at St. Anne's participates in the Walk/Run annually. There were forty seven (47) participants representing our parish last September. Registration to be held this weekend after all Masses.

Please join us for a Walk or Run on September 24, 2016 at Catholic High School. If you wish to sponsor the volunteers at the food pantry you may leave a donation at the office. No donation is too small. All money received is used to purchase food for the pantry at St. Anne's.

God Bless you.

Volunteers of St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry, St. Anne's Conference.
